

VIRGINIA COURT HOUSE TRAGEDYTWO MORE DEATHS AS RESULT OF BATTLE.Two Chiefs of Band in Captivity and Wife of One Dead—Boy Wounded in Fusillade Makes Fifth Death——Another May Die.Hillsville, Va., March 15.—The end of the day's chase of the Hillsville raiders brought the death list of the court house tragedy and its sequel up to five.Sidna and Floyd Allen, two of the chiefs of the band which rode down on the Carroll county court house yesterday and assassinated the judge and prosecutor and the sheriff, are in captivity, both wounded severely.Sidna Allen's wife is dead, shot in a pitched battle with a posse in the mountains while helping defend her outlaw husband.The fifth death was that of Nancy Ayres, a 19 year old girl, accidentally shot during the fusillade in the court house yesterday.All the other members of the gang, probably eighteen, are up in the mountains off toward the North Carolina line, well armed, well supplied and determined not to be taken.The storming of Sidna Allen's house today was next thing to a bombardment. The posse trailed through the bush four miles up the ridge and surrounded his cabin. Allen expecting their coming, was barricaded, well supplied with rifles and ammunition which he had bought from a store in which he was a partner.From behind stumps, rocks and trees and other natural fortresses of the mountain side, the posse blazed at the house and Allen blazed at the posse as fast as the women of his family could load his rifles. In a full posse rushed the house, broke down the doors and found Allen's wife dead and Allen himself grappling in a heap, bleeding profusely."You got me because I couldn't fight no longer," he is reported to have said to the men who brought him back to Hillsville more dead than alive.Attorney General Williams, who is here today, declared that Sidna Allen's bullets killed Judge Massie on the bench yesterday.Floyd Allen, the cause of the tragedy, was taken to the lockup this morning under a heavy guard and immediately whipped out a pocket knife and slashed his throat. His wounds, however, are not serious.Allen's son, Victor; Cabell Strickland and Byrd Marion were also locked up as witnesses.Judge Fowler, who was wounded in the firing, is not expected to live through the night. The wounds of Jurors Kane and Wordell and Clerk Good are not serious.Tonight the man hunt is in abeyance waiting for daylight. No native, let alone a stranger, will travel these mountain roads after dark with the Allen gang loose. At daybreak one set of detectives which had reached Hillsville, joined a party of deputy sheriffs from the neighborhood and set off up the mountainside.
The other party which went up the north side of the ridge stormed the Allen house.Judge Seales, designated by Governor Mann to come here and hold court, took the bench and summoned a special grand jury to indict the murderers.The organization of the court which was all but wiped out yesterday by the work of assassins had a great influence in restoring quiet among the terror-stricken natives.
Tonight a guard of mountain sharpshooters surrounds the jail ready for any attempt to take off the two prisoners. The officers think, however, that with both the Allens wounded, the outlaws may have less stomach for the fight.

ARE STILL AT LARGE.

No Clue as to Hiding Place of Murderers Convicts.Lincoln, Neb., March 15.—The three convicts who yesterday murdered Warden Delahunt, Deputy Wagoner and Usher Heilman at the Nebraska state prison, were at a late hour still at large, with nothing that can be called a definite clue as to their hiding place. Four men were arrested this afternoon at Bennett, but late reports say they bear little resemblance to the murderers. Sheriff Hyers and others who are in charge of the pursuit have definitely made up their minds that the men were assisted in reaching a safe cover by some persons outside, and the only question now is whether they will be able to break through the dragnet that has been spread.

NOBODY KILLED.

Chihuahua, Mexico, March 15.— A detachment of government troops under General Pancho Villa engaged a rebel force under Col. Jose Flores Alatorre in a canyon near Santa Rosalia this afternoon. Despatches from Alatorre mention no casualties, but state that he took fifteen prisoners and that he has hopes of captiving Villa as the latter was traveling with an escort of only a hundred men when the two forces met.

NO MORE TROOPS.

Washington, March 15.—No more troops will be sent to Mexican border at present to enforce the neutrality laws in accordance with President Taft's proclamation of yesterday. The army regards that the duty of civilian customs officers.BUILT REFINERY TO SELL TO TRUSTNEVER INTENDED TO OPERATE SUGAR PLANT.Evidence to That Effect Being Introduced in Trial of Sugar Refinery Officials for Violating Anti-Trust Law.New York, March 15.—Evidence that Adolph Segal built his Pennsylvania sugar refining plant for no other purpose than to sell it at a profit to the "sugar trust," and never intended to operate it, was promised today by Delaney Nichol, counsel for the directors and officers of the American Sugar Refining company, who are on trial for alleged violation of the criminal clause of the Sherman anti-trust law. That such evidence would form a part of the defense was revealed during the cross-examination of Thomas B. Harned, Segal's attorney, who is a witness for the government. Questioning Harned as to whether he had been his own witness, Mr. Nichol drew from him the statement that he never heard Segal talk about selling the new refinery in operation.All Segal wanted, according to the witness, was to sell it at a profit.Harned said that Segal was so heavily involved that the loan made to him, through which, it is alleged, the American Sugar Refining company obtained possession of his Philadelphia refinery, "did not wipe out his debts by a couple of millions."Gustave Kissel, who acted for the "unknown" lenders, allowed Segal to have $200,000 of his own money while the loan was being negotiated, according to the witness.Mr. Wise on re-direct examination of Harned drew from the witness the statement that when Segal had said he wanted to borrow three-quarters of a million, Kissel had said:

"Oh, make it a million."

ACCUSATION MADE

La Follette's Manager Criticizes Action of Roosevelt and Pinchot.Jamestown, N. D., March 15.— Gifford Pinchot, personally knew that Col. Roosevelt had encouraged the candidacy of Senator La Follette as the declaration made in a lengthy statement today by Walter L. Houser, Senator La Follette's campaign manager, after a conference with the senator."Pinchot knows that Roosevelt not only encouraged, but was favorable to La Follette's candidacy until it came to appear that it might succeed," the statement read.

A Denial.

Washington, March 15.—Replying to a statement made by Walter L. Houser, La Follette's campaign manager, at Jamestown, N. D., today to the effect that Gifford Pin-chot knew that Roosevelt encouraged La Follette's candidacy "until it seemed to appear that it might succeed," the Roosevelt headquarters here tonight gave out an open letter by Gifford Pinchot, which quotes a letter written by Gifford Gardner, a newspaper man, to Houser. This letter denies that Col.
Roosevelt promised his support to the senator's candidacy with the assurance that he, himself, would not become a candidate.Gardner's letter to Houser declares untrue any statement that Col.
Roosevelt urged Senator La Follette to become a candidate. It then goes on to say that Col. Roosevelt sent word by Gardner that he did not believe that Senator La Follette could win, and "that he believed Taft's re-nomination would be forced by money and patronage and therefore, Col. Roosevelt said he did not feel like urging La Follette to go into a losing fight."Other quotations from Gardner's letter follow:"Col. Roosevelt had said emphatically that he would not take sides as between candidates or give any candidate a specific endorsement. He said he would, in the columns of the Outlook and otherwise do what he could to direct attention to the highest accomplished by Senator La Follette in Wisconsin, beyond this, he said, he could not go.""Col. Roosevelt did not promise that he would not himself become a candidate. He was very careful at that and all times to say that he would not bind himself as to his future course by any promise or statements. I made this clear to Senator La Follette and the senator to my own knowledge knew at all times that Col. Roosevelt regarded himself as free to take any course that he might consider wise.""Finally I told Senator La Follette that Col. Roosevelt agreed that if Senator La Follette proposed to undertake a campaign for the nomination with the quite certain prospect that he would make a losing fight, the sooner the campaign was begun the better.""That was the sum and substance of the message which I brought from Oyster Bay.""It was understood by all of Senator La Follette's friends that he became a candidate without serious hope of being nominated and for the purpose of consolidating the progressive movement."Mr. Pinchot's letter, which closes with an appeal for Roosevelt delegates in North Dakota compares Senator La Follette to an injured player in a football game, "whose spirit is so aroused by the contest that he refuses to leave the field, although he can no longer do his part in winning the victory for his side."LEAVES BUREAU OF CHEMISTRYDR. HARVEY W. WILEY RESIGNS HIS OFFICE.Great Pure Food Champion Will Hereafter Espouse Cause From Ranks of People—Taft Expresses Regret.Washington, March 15.—Dr.
Harvey W. Wiley left the laboratories of the bureau of chemistry tonight—where for nearly 23 years he had been chief chemist—no longer a government official, but determined to champion the cause of pure food from the ranks of the people.Friction with his superiors and irreconcilable differences of opinion as to the enforcement of the pure food and drugs act were the reasons given by Dr. Wiley.Dr. Wiley will devote the remainder of his life, according to a statement issued by him to day, to the "promotion of the principles of civil righteousness and industrial integrity which underlie the food and drugs act, in the hope that it may be administered in the interest of the people at large instead of that of a comparatively few mercenary manufacturers and dealers."President Taft expressed regret at the resignation. Secretary Wilson said Dr. Wiley had been "a valuable man."Dr. Wiley in his statement thanked Mr. Wilson for "the personal kindness and regard shown him," and likewise expressed his gratitude to President Taft for exonerating him last summer in connection with alleged irregularities in employing Dr. H. H. Rusby of New York. Dr. Wiley remarks, however, that though he was continued in his position after that incident he naturally expected that those who had made false charges would be dismissed.Dr. Wiley speaks in his statement of the "interests" which were found by him to be engaged in the manufacture of misbranded or adulterated foods and drugs."One by one," says Dr. Wiley, "I found that the activities pertaining to the bureau of chemistry were restricted by various forms of manipulated food and drugs, which were being sold to the public without either to other bodies not contemplated by the law or directly relieved from further control."The official toleration and validation of such practices have restricted the activities of the bureau of chemistry to a very narrow field, as a result of which I have been in-dured to refrain from stating in any public way my opinion regarding the effect of these substances upon health. The restriction has interfered with my academic freedom of speech on matters relating directly to the public welfare."Dr. Wiley's statement expresses his disappointment that those who brought the charges of which he was exonerated last summer were not dismissed."I naturally expected that those who had made these charges falsely against me would no longer be continued in a position which would make a reputation of such action possible. The event, however, has not sustained my expectations in this matter. I was still left to come into daily contact with the men who secretly planned my destruction."Dr. Wiley explained that while he did not determine to leave the government service until two days ago, for nearly six years there has been a growing feeling in his mind, "that the differences between his superiors and himself were irreconcilable," and that he had been "conscious of an official environment which was essentially inhospitable."Dr. Wiley has not decided whether he will continue his fight for pure food through the lecture field or as a writer or editor of household magazines.Until his successor is chosen, Dr.
R. E. Doolittle will act as chief of the bureau of chemistry.

ROOSEVELT LEADERS.

An Important Meeting Held in New York Last Night.New York, March 15.—What was perhaps the most important meeting of leaders of the Roosevelt campaign yet held, took place to night. Col.
Roosevelt and his chief lieutenants went over the situation to map out a plan of action, which, it is understood, will have a decisive effect in shaping the campaign. The conference extended late into the night and those who participated in it said that at present they could make no definite announcement of the plans agreed upon. Those present were Senator Dixon Col. Roosevelt's campaign manager, William L.
Ward, Republican national committee member from New York; Walter Brown, chairman of the Republican state central committee of Ohio; Governors Hadley of Missouri and Glasscock of West Virginia; George W. Perkins, Henry L. Stoddard and Frank A. Munsey of New York; former Senator Beveridge of Indiana, Alexander H. Revell of Chicago, chairman of the national Roosevelt committee, and Thomas Nodding, haunt of St. Louis.The situation in various sections was gone over to decide upon the states where it is regarded as essential for the colonel to appear. He would give no inkling of the decision reached.

SIGNS PRIMARY BILL.

Boston, March 15.—Governor Foss to day signed the presidential primary bill.FREE SUGAR BILL PASSES HOUSEMEASURE GOES THROUGH BY VOTE OF 198 TO 103.Twenty-four Republicans Vote for Bill, While Seven Democrats Vote in Negative—All Amendments Voted Down.Washington, March 15.—The Democratic free sugar bill passed the house to day 198 to 103. Its passage was helped by 24 Republican votes, although this was offset by the defection of seven Democratic votes against the bill by members from Louisiana and Colorado.At the last moment Representative Martin, one of the Colorado members, blocked an attempt to fix plans for consideration of the excess tax bill, which, through taxation of incomes, is expected to make up the revenue lost by the free sugar measure.The bill went through as originally framed. A score of amendments were voted down as fast as they were presented.Representative Mondell of Wyoming, Republican, sought to amend the measure by making it become effective only after receipt of a report on the sugar industry by the tariff board; Representative Broussard, of Louisiana, submitted an amendment leaving the duty as it is fixed at present, but abrogating the Cuban preferential; Representatives Good and Proulx of Iowa, Leonard of Wisconsin and Norris of Nebraska strove to have incorporated a clause providing for a bounty on sugar, especially that produced from beets. All amendments met the same fate.The debate was marked by occasional flashes of extreme bitterness on both sides. Democratic members from sugar producing states accused their colleagues of working ruin to the sugar industry, while Republican progressives seized the opportunity to give their tariff views.The Republicans who supported the bill were: Representatives Anderson, Davis, Lindberg, Miller, Nye, Steenerson and Volstead of Minnesota; Good, Kendall and Woods of Iowa; Murdock and Young of Kansas; Hanna and Helgeson of North Dakota; La Follette and Warburton of Washington; McKenzie and Prince of Illinois; Carey of Wisconsin; Dyer of Missouri; Howland of Ohio; Kent of California; Lafferty of Oregon; Norris of Nebraska, and Sells of Tennessee.The Louisiana and Colorado members, all Democrats, voted against the measure.The sugar bill out of the way, the house to morrow will take up the excise measure, which provides a tax of one per cent on incomes of corporations, firms or individuals which reach or exceed $5,000 a year.
This tax is intended to offset the loss of revenue now derived from sugar. An understanding of the procedure may be reached before the house convenes to morrow and the measure may be pushed to a vote by Monday night.

PENSION LEGISLATION

Subject Discussed in Senate Brought Out Various Suggestions of Economy.Washington, March 15.—Pension legislation was before the senate today and brought forth various suggestions for government economy that might be effected to give the war veterans more liberal allowances.Senator McCumber criticized the Sherwood dollar-a-day bill of the house contending that it was based on erroneous reports and would add $8,500,000 to the pension expenditures, while the Smoot measure of the senate would add only $33,000, 000 a year.Senator Pomerene of Ohio, attacked the Sherwood measure and argued that the Smoot bill would grant every dollar that the government could afford to pay.Senator Kenyon of Iowa, suggested that the money for pension increase might be raised through his bill to reduce the mileage allowances of senators and representatives and abolish the senate barber shop and baths.Senator Brown of Nebraska, regarded that the measure to abolish the senate itself as a hope in economy."If we continue to pile up expenditures," replied Senator Pom-erene, "the time may come when the senate will be abolished."

TAKES CABLE KING.

Washington, March 15.—President Taft to day enabled the following to King Victor Emmanuel:"I send you my sincere expression of my solicitude of bearing of the wicked attempt made, and the great satisfaction with which I have learned that you escaped injury."

PANAMA CANAL BILL.

Washington, March 15.—The house interstate commerce committee to day added an amendment to the Panama canal government bill which would have the effect of barring from the canal all railroad owned steamships engaged in coast wise trade.

SENT TO PRISON FOR MURDER.

Boone, Iowa, March 15.—Conrad Klute was to day sentenced to 15 years in the penitentiary for the murder of Isaac Robertson on December 23, last. Judge Wright declined a motion for a new trial.

BASKETBALL GAMES.

Urbana, Ill., March 15.—The University of Wisconsin basketball team won from the University of Illinois to night, 23 to 15.CANDIDATES DECIDE TO QUITMANY WITHDRAW THEIR NOMI-NATION PETITIONS.Friday Was Last Day to Ask for Return of Petitions—Other Names on File Will Be Certified to Various County Clerks of State.Springfield, Ill., March 15.—This was the last day on which candidates who have filed nomination petitions with the secretary of state for offices to be voted upon at the primaries April 9, could withdraw and consequently a large number asked that their petitions be returned.The names of all candidates who have filed petitions and who did not withdraw them before midnight tonight, will be certified by Secretary of State Rose to the various county clerks of the state to be placed on the ballots at the primaries next month.The following candidates withdrew to day:John M. Dodd, Marion, Republican, member board of equalization, twenty-fifth district.Louis Hruska, Republican, Chicago, congress, fifth district.Charles Rabbitt, Democrat, Amboy, state committeeman, thirteenth district.Frank J. Walsh, Democrat, Chicago, state committeeman, third district.Frank A. Swolk, Republican, Chicago, member state board of equalization, fifth district.Edward D. Cook, Democrat, Chicago, representative in general assembly, first district.Charles A. Timmons, Democrat, Peoria, representative in general assembly, eighteenth district.John Czekala, Democrat, Chicago, member state central committee, eighth district.Charles Gola, Democrat, Chicago, representative in general assembly, seventeenth district.Charles Luka, Democrat, Chicago,
representative in general assembly, twenty-seventh district.Nelson T. Morley, Prohibition, Yorkville, representative in general assembly, fourteenth district.John W. Cole, Geneseo, Republican, representative in general assembly, thirty-seventh district.John M. Dood, Republican, Marion, member state board of equalization.John J. Griffin, Democrat, Chicago, member state board of equalization, eighth district.Raymond D. Hagler, Republican, Marion, state senator, forty-fourth district.William Wintermeyer, Jr., Democrat, Chicago, representative in general assembly, twenty-seventh district.John P. Marthas, Republican, Vienna, representative in general assembly, fifty-first district.NEGOTIATIONS COME TO AN ENDMINE WORKERS AND OPERA-TORS IN DEADLOCK.Both Sides Declare They Will Stand Firm—Unless Agreement Is Reached by March 31, 180,000 Miners Will Cease Work.New York, March 15.—The United Mine Workers of America and the committee of coal operators ended negotiations here to day in a deadlock. To night both sides declare they are standing firm—the miners for their demands of 20 per cent increase in wages, recognition of the union, a shorter work day and other concessions; the operators for a three year renewal of the present agreement which terminates at midnight March 31. Unless an agreement is reached by that time, each side admits, 180,000 hard coal miners in Pennsylvania will cease work.There is any chance of compromise before that date it failed of expression to day.John P. White of the miners' organization and his colleagues, said that they considered the case hopeless, so far as avoiding suspension of work and prepared to return home to morrow.The operators' committee received the reiterated demands of the miners, offered in response to the operators' reply, without comment further than that they regretted the miners' stand.After adjournment George F.
Baer notified President White that the operators' committee will meet the miners at day time but regarding the demands as impossible of concession. Mr. White replied that they were equally impossible of modification.The executive committee of the miners' national officers at a meeting later decided to abide by their demands. They will meet to morrow to decide upon other questions.No formal strike would be declared, according to Mr. White, until after the policy committee meets in Cleveland March 25.The bituminous miners have asked for a 10 per cent increase and the operators have offered to make a new agreement reducing wages 10 per cent.We expect to get the increase in the bituminous section," Mr. White said to night. "Should the unexpected happen, however, there is little doubt that the bituminous miners will also favor a strike, or that the policy committee would recommend such action. Of course, I cannot forecast that, as the policy committee is composed of delegates from each of the 25 districts in the United States and Canada. In any event, the policy committee probably will deal with the anthracite situation for the best interests of the whole organization. Likewise, a general suspension of work in the anthracite fields will automatically go into effect April 1 unless a new agreement is reached."In a "statement to the public," issued to night, the anthracite operators' committee reiterated the declaration that they cannot advance wages unless recouped through the advance in coal prices to the public, which they do not consider warranted by anything in the condition of the mine workers under the present agreement.

ARBITRATION TREATY TALK.

Washington, March 15.—Frequent conferences recently between President Taft and James Bryce, the British ambassador, led to a report to night that the president had about decided not to accept the arbitration treaties with Great Britain and France as amended by the senate.It is understood that President Taft believes the treaties have been so impaired by the senate's action as to make them practically useless as preventives of war.Ambassador Jusserand of France, has not seen the president since the amendment of the treaties and his attitude is unknown.

READY TO FORM NEW LEAGUE.

Rock Island, Ill., March 15.—At a meeting to day preliminary steps were taken for the formation of a new baseball league with teams from Waterloo, Cedar Rapids, Iowa City, Clinton, Rock Island and Moline. Representatives attended from all these points except Cedar

DANGER PERIOD OF WOMAN'S LIFE FROM 45 to 50

Interesting Experience of Two Women—Their Statements Worth Reading.

Asheville, N.C. "I suffered for years with female trouble while going through the Change of Life. I tried a local physician for a couple of years without any substantial benefit. Finally after repeated suggestions to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I quit my physician and commenced using it with the happiest results. I am today practically a well woman and anxious to contribute my mite towards inducing others to try your great medicine, as I am fully persuaded that it will cure the ailments from which I suffered if given a fair chance.

"If you think this letter will contribute anything towards further introducing your medicines to afflicted women who are passing through this trying period, it is with great pleasure I consent to its publication."—Mrs. JULIA A. MOORE, 17 East St., Asheville, N.C.

The Case of Mrs. Kirlin.
Circleville, Ohio. "I can truthfully say that I never had anything do me so much good during Change of Life as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Before I had taken one half a bottle of it I began to feel better, and I have continued taking it. My health is better than it has been for several years. If all women would take it they would escape untold pain and misery at this time of life."—Mrs. ALICE KIRLIN, 353 W. Mill St., Circleville, Ohio.

The Change of Life is one of the most critical periods of a woman's existence. At such times women may rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

SUSTAINED BY COURT.

J. A. Ayers Favored by Appellate Court in Water Works Case.
In the case of John A. Ayers against the City of Jacksonville which came up in the appellate court of the third district in Springfield the court has handed down a decision in favor of Mr. Ayers. In his injunction suit Mr. Ayers sought to restrain the city from paying the American Wells Works company for pumps and other equipment for the plant located north of the city. The demurrer filed by the city of Jacksonville was sustained in the circuit court here and Mr. Ayers appealed to the appellate court. The case reversed and remanded.

Temperature of Volcanoes.

Scientists have secured an accurate measurement of the temperature of boiling lava in a crater. The experiment was a very dangerous one, and it was considered a triumph of precaution no lives were sacrificed in making the test. The crater of Kilauea, in Hawaii, was selected for examination. The work progressed very slowly. For a long time it was impossible to obtain results, but after several thermometers had been destroyed a pyrometer was substituted to advantage. The temperature recorded was 1,010 degrees C., which is the same as 1,830 degrees F. This is still unmeted at this heat, but gold, silver and copper become a molten mass at a lower temperature. Harper's Weekly.

A Pessimist.

The "duffer" at golf becomes so used to finding himself in all kinds of out of the way places that he hits every ball in the confident expectation of getting into difficulties with it. Such a player was he who speaks thus in the St. Louis Post Dispatch: "Is this your ball over here?" "Is it in a hole?" "Yes." "A deep hole?" "Yes." "With slightly overhanging banks, so you can't possibly get at it?" "Yes." "Then it's my ball, all right."

BURIAL OF WARSHIP

Hulk of Battleship Maine Will Be Sent to Bottom of Sea Today—Pay Tribute to Dead Sailors.

Havana, March 15.—The hulk of the old battleship Maine will be sent to its last resting place at the bottom of the sea, three miles off the Cuban coast, tomorrow afternoon. Roses on her deck will dot the water as it sinks, taps will be sounded and the cruiser North Carolina will point northward to bring home the last of the bodies of the men who met death when the Maine was blown up in Havana on the night of Feb. 15, 1898. Final arrangements for the disposal of the Maine were made this afternoon when shortly after sun down the hulk was towed through a breach in the icefield by the navy tug Osceola and moored to its inter wall.

This afternoon the public was admitted to view the 34 gun caskets containing the remains of sixty-two members of the crew of the Maine which lay in state in the municipal council chamber. The walls were draped with black and at the upper end of the chamber a gilded altar blazed with innumerable wax candles. The caskets were draped with Cuban and American ensigns.

Numerous floral offerings were laid on the coffins by the Cuban navy, the Spanish war veterans and various societies. A vast concourse passed through the hall to pay their last tribute to the dead sailors.

To morning the caskets, each borne on the shoulders of six Cuban soldiers or sailors, will be carried to the Caballeria wharf between lines of Cuban soldiers presenting arms. At the head of this procession will be President Gomez and members of his cabinet, members of the diplomatic corps, supreme court officials of the national and municipal governments and officers of the Cuban army, navy and marines.

At the wharf Mayor De Cardenas will formally present the bodies to Brigadier General Bixby, chief of the engineer corps, who will make a response. A funeral oration will be delivered by Father Chacabak, who was chaplain of the Maine at the time of the disaster. The casket will then be transported to the cruiser North Carolina.

At 2 o'clock the hulk of the Maine will be taken in tow by the tug and, escorted by the North Carolina and Birmingham, four Cuban gunboats and a great fleet of other craft, will be conveyed to sea three miles off the Cuban coast where per sea corks will be opened and vessel sent to the bottom.

HAD NARROW ESCAPE.

Mr. Vernon, Ill., March 15.—I learned to day that Senator Lorimer and Len Small were on a passenger train that narrowly missed plunging off a bridge last night. The engine and cars of a fast passenger train on the abash, Chester & Western road, left the rails on the bridge south of Mount Vernon, but ran across the structure on the ties.

WHY HE DOES IT.

Druggists Coover & Shreve Give Reasons.

It isn't often that we have faith enough in the medicines put up by other people to be willing to offer to refund the money if it does not cure, said Druggist Shreve to one of their many customers, but we are glad to sell Dr. Howard's specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia on that plan.

"The Dr. Howard Co. in order to get a quick introductory sale authorized are to sell the regular fifty-cent bottle of their specific for 25 cents and although we have sold a lot of it, and guaranteed every package, not one has been brought back as unsatisfactory."

Any person who is subject to constipation, sick headache, dizziness, liver trouble, indigestion or a general played out condition, ought to take advantage of this opportunity. If the specific does not cure them, they can come right back to our store, and we will cheerfully refund their money.

JACKSONVILLE LOSES TWO DEBATES

Affirmative Team Trounced by Quincy Here and Springfield Won Unanimous Decision Over Local Negative Trio—Quincy Wins at Home.

The Jacksonville High school debating teams were given a solar plexus blow Friday night, losing two to one at home, with Quincy as an opponent, and Springfield team winning a unanimous decision over the local negative trio, at Springfield. Quincy obtained the highest honors, winning two debates.

Debate at Home.

The question for debate was "Resolved, That the adoption of the initiative and referendum by the state of Illinois, as now provided in the state of Oregon, would result in better state government (constitutionally granted)." The debaters were given a rousing ovation as they mounted the platform, which had been appropriately decorated with potted plants, carnations and various pennants and banners.

Jacksonville had the affirmative side of the question and was represented by Messrs. Everett Weeks, Ellis Spray and Harold McGinnis. Quincy upheld the negative side, represented by Messrs. Grace Brady, Maud Grubb and Roger Wells. It was one of the best debates ever given at the local high school, all the debaters having the question well in mind and it appeared there was no point of the question which was not touched upon and threshed out by the debaters.

Each one of the debaters, however, on both teams could well be praised and all acquitted themselves in a complimentary manner. Naturally much interest centered about the local trio and it was almost conceded by the big audience that Jacksonville had the decision of the judges.

The affirmative based their arguments in favor of the initiative and referendum from the following reasons: (1) An extension of the present government; (2) Has proved it worth and merit; (3) Would better conditions in Illinois; (4) The initiative and referendum would give the people their rights; (5) The adoption of the Oregon plan would result in better government in Illinois.

The negative team based their initiative and referendum (1) Strikes at the root of popular government; (2) Destroys check and balance system; (3) Places government on an uncertain basis; (4) Would not eradicate the present evils, such as political corruption. Would not strengthen, but weaken the state legislature; (5) Takes no cognizance of constitution and statute laws; (6) Defects of Oregon plan shown by fishing bills, poll tax law, growth of number of laws.

Each speaker was allowed twelve minutes for his main speech and five minutes for the closing speech. The speakers who summed up the debate were allowed seven minutes, those being Everett Weeks and Roger Wells.

The judges were Prof. George R. Throop, Washington University, St. Louis; Judge J. Otis Humphrey, U. S. district court; Prof. Albert T. Mills, Millikin university. When the decision was announced there was not much demonstration among the students, but Roger Wells, of the Quincy team ran out to the front of the platform and yelled at the top of his voice for the Jacksonville debaters, being joined later by his co-workers.

Quincy Wins at Home.
Quincy, March 15.—Quincy won the Tuesday debate from Springfield here to night.

Quincy affirmatives—Helen Smith, Albert Penick, Paul Smith.

Springfield negatives—John Tanager, Roy Chiles, Hermon Cohn.

The judges were Prof. R. E. Starbird, Washington University, St. Louis; Prof. W. L. Raub, Knox college, Galesburg; Karl Loos, State university of Iowa, Iowa City.

Locals Lost at Springfield.
Springfield, Ill., March 15.—Springfield High school won over Jacksonville High school in a debate here to night on the subject "Resolved, that the adoption of the initiative and referendum by the state of Oregon, as now provided for by the state of Oregon, would result in a better state government."

The judges were unanimous in their decision.

The Springfield team was composed of Donald Rockwell, David Shand and Roy Blankenship. The Jacksonville team consisted of Harlan Williamson, Helen Wheeler and Edward Ballard. The judges were C. E. Sawyer of Danville, C. E. Elwood of Charleston and B. C. Richmond.

BROTHERHOOD MET.

The Congregational Brotherhood held a meeting last night, which was largely attended by the members. An excellent luncheon was served at 6:30 o'clock and afterward addresses were made by Rev. Howard D. French and Rev. L. H. Davis on "The Crisis in the Church." The session was one of unusual interest.

TRAIN WRECKED.

Utica, N. Y., March 16.—Crashing into a freight train as it was taking a cross over two miles east of Rome Station about 11:30 this morning, New York Central passenger train known as the Western Express was partially wrecked. No one was killed, but three of the passengers are said to have been seriously injured.

Building for Permanency

Everybody likes to build, but nobody likes "repair jobs." They inevitably represent an additional investment without any addition to value. That point is worth digesting.

When you build, whatever you build, you like to build "for keeps."

Some people change their minds about styles in building; the same as wearables; our tastes develop and result in changes in our wants, but nobody changes his or her mind as to wishing to get the greatest possible endurance or wear out of the things they buy, and especially is this true of building investments.

Those who build for time have a care in the selection of lumber. We had this in mind in buying our extensive lumber stock and we would be pleased with a chance to give you a figure on whatever lumber bill you may have in mind. The prices named will be satisfactory and the lumber qualities will more than meet your expectations.

GAS ORDINANCE IS RECEIVED

Company Has Submitted Measure Which Meets Its Approval.

The gas ordinance which the Jacksonville Gas company wishes the city council to pass has been received by Mayor Davis and will probably be read in a council meeting Monday. The main provisions of the suggested franchise ordinance are as follows:

The preamble recites that the Jacksonville Gas & Electric company desires to lay, extend, maintain and remove for the purpose of enlargement or repairs, the conduits, pipes and appliances necessary for the operation of a gas plant, and distributing system in and through certain streets, alleys and public grounds in Jacksonville and in territory adjacent. It also recites that the consent of owners of land of more than half of the frontage along the streets required had been obtained and the provisions of the law in regard to the filing of the petition and the checking of the same by the city engineer had been done.

Section 1. Gives the right, permission and authority to the Jacksonville Gas & Electric company to carry out the provisions as stated above for a period of thirty years, from and after the final passage and acceptance of this ordinance.

Section 2 specifies the streets, alleys and public grounds through and under which the conduits, pipes, etc., may be placed and maintained.

Section 3 provides that gas shall be furnished consumers at a maximum price of $1.25 per thousand feet, with a minimum monthly charge of 25 cents. Also that on all bills of $1.25 per thousand feet, which shall be paid within ten days after the rendition of the bill, a discount of 10 cents per thousand feet shall be allowed, so as to make the net price of the bill so paid at the rate of $1.15 per thousand feet.

Section 4 provides that the daily average lighting value of the gas furnished within one mile radius of the distributing center shall be not less than sixteen candle power.

Section 5 provides that the pressure of the gas furnished as measured at any reasonable time, to have competent inspectors make such tests of the gas as it may deem necessary.

Section 6 states that the gas furnished shall not contain more than 30 grains of sulphur in 100 cubic feet, nor more than 10 grains of ammonia in any form in 100 cubic feet and shall not have more than a trace of the impurity known as "sulphurated hydrogen."

Section 7 grants the right to the city at any reasonable time, to have competent inspectors make such tests of the gas as it may deem necessary.

Section 8 provides that the Gas company shall make daily photometric tests of the gas supplied to the mains and also make a daily test of the calorific value of the gas and the pressure and shall make, weekly, a sworn statement of the results of all such tests during the preceding week.

Section 9 provides that a penalty shall be inflicted upon the Gas company upon the violation of the provisions of the ordinance and specifies the amount of the penalty to be inflicted for various offenses named.

Section 10 specifies that gas meters of standard make and pattern shall be furnished free and installed without cost to the customer, by the meter shall be the property of the company and that a minimum monthly charge of 25 cents shall be payable by each consumer for whom a meter is installed.

Section 11 provides that the Gas company shall, before installing a meter make a test of it and again when taking it out of service, and shall furnish for installation a pressure gauge at the city hall.

Section 12 states that a meter shall be considered as correct when passing gas at the rate of 6 cubic feet per hour, per light capacity.

Section 13 provides that no meter shall be allowed in service longer than three years without checking it for accuracy.

Section 14 states that the company shall, at the request of a consumer, make a test of his meter, provided he does not make a request more frequently than once in six months.

Section 15 provides for the carrying out of the provisions of Section 14 and fixes the cost of the same.

Special Display and Sale of Embroideries

Monday, March 11 to Saturday, March 16

In giving over the ensuing week to a special display and sale of Embroideries, we are launching an event which will prove both fascinating and beneficial to every woman in Jacksonville.

Embroideries of all kinds will be used this spring and summer more extensively than has ever been known, special prominence being given to the 27 inch, 45 inch and 54 inch flouncings; and the woman who does not include in her season's outfit a waist, if not an entire dress of embroidery, will find her wardrobe decidedly lacking when the season gets into full swing.

Many new and quaintly attractive designs have been produced this season and will be featured here during this sale, making the collection a style show which no woman can afford to miss.

Our present showing of Embroideries is the largest we ever brought on, and during this week special low prices will prevail.

HELD MOCK TRIAL

Young Men of Litchberry Christian Church Provide Evening of Pleasing Entertainment.

The members of the Tri Nu class of the Christian church at Litchberry entertained the Sunday school at a delightful social Friday evening in the parlors of the church. A mock trial was the main feature of entertainment and afforded no little fun and amusement. The points in the case were well worked up and the suit was prosecuted strictly in accordance with legal procedure. Orville Crum was made the defendant and the charges preferred were vagrancy and disturbing the peace. Although all realized that Judge Albert Crum could be relied upon to give a just and fair decision, a trial by jury was deemed advisable and some very valuable time was taken in the careful selection of a jury. From a panel of thirty men the following were agreed upon by both the defense and the prosecution: John Frazer, foreman; Oscar Petefish, William Collins, Hugh Lindsay, Earl Rexroat and Edward Shibe.

The people were represented by State's Attorney William H. Crum, ably assisted by Attorneys Aaron Petefish, Jr. and Clyde Martin. Hon. Eugene Hart and Judge Elmer Henderson comprised the counsel for the defense. The prosecution is said to have presented strong argument in sustaining their case the following witnesses being introduced: Miss Lora Petefish, whose testimony alone in the opinion of many was sufficient to convict; Warren Daniels; Orville Petefish, John W. Martin, David F. Parks and Alfonso Raliff. It must also be said that the defendant's attorneys built up a splendid defense and made a bold and bitter attack upon the evidence advanced by their legal opponents. The witnesses for the defendant were Durrell Crum, Earl Underbrink, J. A. Litter, Miss May Martin, Miss Annabelle Crum, John Daniels, Miss Grace Hill and Miss Evaloe Petefish. J. S. Hitchens was clerk of court and Mrs. Harry Martin, court stenographer.

A verdict of guilty was returned and the judge ordered that the defendant be banished from the Tri Nu class and that he spend six months in the Mothers' class. Sylvester Austin, the sheriff, then took the prisoner in charge and the court room was vacated.

A the conclusion of the trial, the young men served elegant refreshments, which they had provided. In every way the evening was one of great pleasure.

The best is the cheapest; Knole's goods are best; his prices cheapest.

LARGE OFFERING FOR MISSIONS
 The recent number of "The Christian Standard" calls attention to the large offering for missions, which was made by the members of the First Christian church of Los Angeles, of which Rev. R. F. Thrapp is the pastor. The amount given was $1,300, the largest in the history of the church.

The new line of suitings at Knole's will commend itself to wise men.

CELEBRATED WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

Mrs. Albert Hall, residing near Arcadia, to celebrate the first anniversary of her marriage Friday invited a number of her neighbors to spend the day with her. The thoughtful ladies took their needles with them and in the course of the day completed two splendid comforters, which were presented to the hostess. They stopped long enough at the noon hour to feast on the many good things which Mrs. Hall likes so well to provide, after which the company repaired to the parlor and were entertained by number of splendid musical selections by Mrs. Clarence Thompson. The remaining hours were passed in a delightful social manner.

"EVERY LITTLE OLIVE TABLET HAS A MOVEMENT ALL ITS OWN"

Your doctor will tell you 90 per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver. Dr. Edwards, a well known physician in Portsmouth, Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil, to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years. Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action, yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of harmful impurities. 10c and 25c per box. ## AN ESTIMATE OF ROOSEVELT Expressed to North Dakota Audience by Senator La Follette—Forced to Make Statement.

Bismarck, N. D., March 15.—Senator La Follette's estimate of Theodore Roosevelt was announced by the Wisconsin senator himself in a speech at Mandan today. The dramatic incident which La Follette's friends said was wholly unexpected, came near the end of a busy day, during which the senator addressed a large meeting at Jamestown and made car-end speeches to moderate sized crowds at Cleveland, Medina, Dawson, Steel and Driscoll and spoke to night at Bismarck.

Senator La Follette was concluding his Mandan speech, which had dealt principally with the initiative, referendum and recall, the Sherman anti-trust law and the 1907 panic, when a gray haired ranchman in the audience interrupted him with the question:

"Who was president when you say these things should have been done?"

"Roosevelt was president," replied Senator La Follette.

"Roosevelt was president," continued the senator, "but I want you to know that I don't believe he was to blame for the panic. It was a 'Wall street' panic. I don't want to be unfair to anyone, no, no."

"But I do say that with the right as president to secure the things for the people went the responsibility. Roosevelt passed by a wonderful opportunity there."

"But now that you have brought him before this meeting to day, I want to tell you this:

"The people of this country owe Theodore Roosevelt a debt of gratitude. Mean and stingy indeed is the mind that cannot credit him for what he has done."

"Few presidents, none since Lincoln, did more to set before the people right moral standards, particularly regarding the holding of public office."

"However, no one knew Roosevelt better than he knew himself. He knew that he had no liking for the plodding research and study necessary to master these great economic problems."

"And he knew that he had never studied the great railroads of this country and their bearing upon the situation that I have described to you. So, what do we find that he did?"

"He said that the ground had been prepared and said that they had answered for a constructive president to take hold. He selected the man, President Taft, upon the constructive side. It was a bad guess. Now I have referred to the record of Roosevelt and not only is it open, but it is the duty at this critical hour to point out that record. Study that record carefully. This is no time to follow blind sentiment. The least mistake by congress or the government regarding the trusts will forever fasten this burden upon the people. So I admonish you, when you elect a representative in congress, a United States senator or a man to fill the president's chair, see to this; see that you will not get just talk, but that you will get something done."

S. D. Epler and Miss Ella Epler of Pleasant Plains were in Jacksonville Friday to see Mrs. F. G. Farrell.

ASKED FOR AID.

C. H. Knollenberg, venerable consul of Camp 932, M. W. A., has received a letter from A. L. Gross, clerk of the camp at Peotone, Ill., stating a man named H. Meyers claiming membership in Jacksonville had recently been given financial aid there. The man's name does not appear on the roster here and Mr. Knollenberg has so notified the head camp.

WOODMEN OPPOSE INCREASES.

A special meeting of Camp 132, M. W. A. was held Friday night to consider the increase of rates recently ordered. The sentiment of the lodge was shown when the members declared, by a vote of 48 to 6 their opposition to the increased rates. C. D. Gudgeon presided as venerable consul. A committee of five was appointed to act in connection with other camps in fighting the proposed plan of increases. This committee includes W. J. Brooks, S. Baldwin, T. J. Bronson, J. C. Quirk and John Lyons. A number of strong speeches were made attacking the increase plans.

ROAD CASE AFFIRMED.

The appellate court yesterday affirmed the finding of the circuit court in the case of Road Districts 7 and 8 against Mrs. Jane Swain. The case was the result of Mrs. Swain having a fence set out on ground which had long been used as a highway. The decision in the circuit court was in favor of the commissioners and Mrs. Swain appealed to the appellate court when the finding in the lower court was affirmed. A rehearing was obtained by Mrs. Swain and now the circuit court decision is again confirmed.

Drinking Horns.

Drinking horns were beloved of the early Saxons, who always took their meat in this manner. Many of the old drinking horns were fashioned from the horns of the rhinoceros under the belief that "it sweats at the approach of poison." Hence, according to this superstition, the drinker would be in a position to tell at once whether an enemy had been tampering with his beverage.—London Globe.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

Henry.
Mrs. Helen Mar Henry, wife of the late John T. Henry of Woodson, died at 8 o'clock Friday morning at the home of her brother, James P. Ball, 803 South Church street. Her maiden name was Helen Mar Ball and she was born in Sangamon county, Oct. 25, 1826. She has spent practically her entire life in this state and for more than fifty years has been a resident of Morgan county. She was married to John T. Henry of Woodson, who served with Abraham Lincoln in the Black Hawk war and who was one of the most highly respected citizens of this county. Mr. Henry was killed in 1902 in this city, being struck by a passing freight train at the intersection of the J. S. E. railroad and East State street. Aunt Helen, as she was most familiarly known by her acquaintance, was a faithful Christian woman and an active member of the Christian church for fifty-three years. She was one of a family of fifteen children. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Ball, were early settlers in Illinois, coming to this state from Kentucky. She is survived by two sons, U. C. Henry of Russellville, Ark., and C. W. Henry of Chicago; a step-son, John D. Henry, and a step-daughter, Mrs. Smith Ball of this city; five grandchildren, John G. Henry of Chicago, Mrs. Edward Challons, Mrs. Ella Mack, Mrs. Ella Lythel and Bart McAllister, the last four being children of a deceased daughter, Mrs. Caroline McAllister; also two brothers, James P. Ball of this city and Thomas H. Ball of Virden, and one sister, Mrs. Mary E. Harrison of Atlanta, Mo.

In the early days every minister who came to the vicinity of Woodson was entertained at the Henry home and during war times Mrs. Henry did much for the aid of disabled soldiers. ### TERRIFYING EXPERIENCE.

Student Visited at Night by Headless Figure of Man.

Chicago, March 15.—Being visited at night in his room at the University of Chicago by a white shrouded figure which represented a man whose head came off and rolled on the floor was so terrifying an experience for L. D. Dunlap, a student, that he suffered a nervous breakdown and had to be sent to his home at Bath, Ill., according to an announcement made at night at the university. It was said the hoax was arranged by other students, and that members of the faculty met to night to consider whether the perpetrators should be expelled or not. It is said the students explained that it had only been intended for a joke, that one of them entered Dunlap's room wrapped in sheets stained with red paint, and a cabbage, to which was attached a mask, which was used to represent a detachable head.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

Mrs. James R. Mathews and Mrs. William Barr Brown, Jr., were the hostesses at a musical given Friday afternoon at the Colonial Inn in honor of Miss Mary Masters, whose marriage to Dr. John Ray Newcome of Indianapolis is to be solemnized in April. A program of exceptional musical excellence was given and afterward a social hour was spent during which refreshments were served.

The spacious rooms of the Inn were very attractively decorated in a color scheme of pink roses and carnations being used with fine effect. Those in the receiving line were Mrs. James R. Mathews, Mrs. William Barr Brown, Jr., Mrs. S. Davis Masters, Miss Mary L. Masters and Mrs. Robert H. Lord and Mrs. Robert E. Jess of Springfield. Those assisting were Mrs. William Barr Brown, Mrs. Edward W. Brown, Mrs. A. M. Masters, Mrs. Felix E. Farrell, Mrs. George E. Mathews, Mrs. Lloyd W. Brown, Mrs. Joel Hubble, Mrs. George B. Conover, Mrs. Lee P. Allcott, Mrs. Alden Brown and Mrs. James T. Capps. Miss Anna Brown was in charge of the program.

The program was given by Mrs. Jess and Mrs. Lord and the Conservatory trio, Messrs. Munger, Kritch and Jensen, and each number was received with great favor. Mrs. Jess has a soprano voice of rich quality and sings with even more grace than was true when she pleased Jacksonville audiences some years ago. Mrs. Jess sang first a group of songs by Cadman and in response to an encore gave the last song a second rendition. As an encore for her second appearance, "A Morning Glory Song" was given beautifully.

Mrs. Lord's piano numbers occasioned most favorable comment and she played with a rare artistic excellence. The pianissimo passages were especially clear and each of her selections was given with fine expression and comprehension. Messrs. Munger, Kritch and Jensen appeared to splendid advantage and their two numbers lent great value to the program. The Baldwin piano was used. The following was the program: Trio, D minor (by request)..... W. E. Kritch Schlager—Andante—Allegro moderato..... W. E. Kritch Conservatory Trio—Messrs. Munger, Kritch and Jensen.

(b) Joy of the Morning..... Harriet Ware

The refreshments were served in a generous way, the ice cream being moulded into mandolin and violin shapes.

Friday night Mr. and Mrs. William Barr Brown, Jr., gave a dancing party at Peacock Inn in honor of Miss Masters, Dr. Newcome, Mrs. James R. Mathews and Mrs. S. Davis Masters. Osborne's orchestra furnished music for a delightful program of twelve numbers. Luncheon was served at 11:30 o'clock and in all its appointments the function was a charming one.

SPRINGFIELD WON

Jacksonville High School Basketball Team Loses Last Game of the Season, 18 to 12.

In the final game of basketball for the season for both teams, Springfield high school was victor over the local team Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock in Strawn's hall by a score of 18 to 12. The Jacksonville men appeared to be in poor form and in the first half of the game played like wooden Indians. The second half started in with the score 13 to 8 in favor of Springfield. Tandy, the star performer for J. H. S., was decidedly off color yesterday and did not put up his usual feat of basket throwing, which fact in a great measure, accounts for the loss of the game, as he was out in the second half, his place being filled by Hale. The Springfield men outplayed the locals, displaying better team work, although in the last half they had trouble in finding the basket. The visiting team has improved much since the beginning of the season. Snyder was easily the star of the Springfield squad. Reeve's playing for Jacksonville in the second half was splendid.

The following was the lineup: Springfield—Snyder and Boye, forwards; Schanbauer, center; Frisbee and Freark, guards.
Jacksonville—Tandy and Hale, center; Stewart and McLaughlin, forwards; Reeve, Hale and Frey, guards.

Scores—Field baskets, Snyder 3, Boye 2, Frisbee 1, Freark 1, Tandy 1, McLaughlin 2, Stewart 1. Fouls—Snyder 3, Tandy 4.
Officials—Referee and umpires—Laure (Springfield); Rogers (Jacksonville).

SPOKE ON "HEREDITY"

Dr. F. P. Norbury Delivers Lecture Before Teachers of State School for the Blind and School for Deaf.

Dr. Frank P. Norbury gave an address Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock before the teachers of the State School for the Deaf and the State School for the Blind, the gathering being held at the former school, with a large representation of teachers present.

Dr. Norbury took for his subject "Heredity—the Newer Phrases and Their Practical Application." He reviewed the history of the theories of heredity, beginning with that of Herbert Spencer, who gave the first scientific conception of heredity theories of physiological units. He also discussed the theory of heredity pangenesis, elaborating on both of them. He also outlined Galton's strip theory and Weismann's theory, its sub-divisions into somatic and germ-plasm considerations, in which he discussed the cell as to the heredity bearing agent. He the nucleus of the cell contained all of the hereditary factors and attributes of separate species.

Dr. Norbury next discussed the Mendel theory, which is the segregation of the unit characters and gave blackboard demonstrations of the application of this theory and the practical study of the individual and of family traits and characters, emphasizing the features of dominant and recessive qualities or characteristics which may not be scientific and could be and has been confirmed by biological experiments. A historical sketch of this law was given and the modern methods of its application as being developed in this country in the Eugenics sections of the American Breeders' association, under the direction of C. D. Davenport of the Carnegie Institute.

Blank forms were distributed, showing how family traits and characteristics are being gathered by this association. Several pedigrees developed along the Mendel theory were shown and distributed among the hearers. A free discussion followed and many questions were asked by those present.

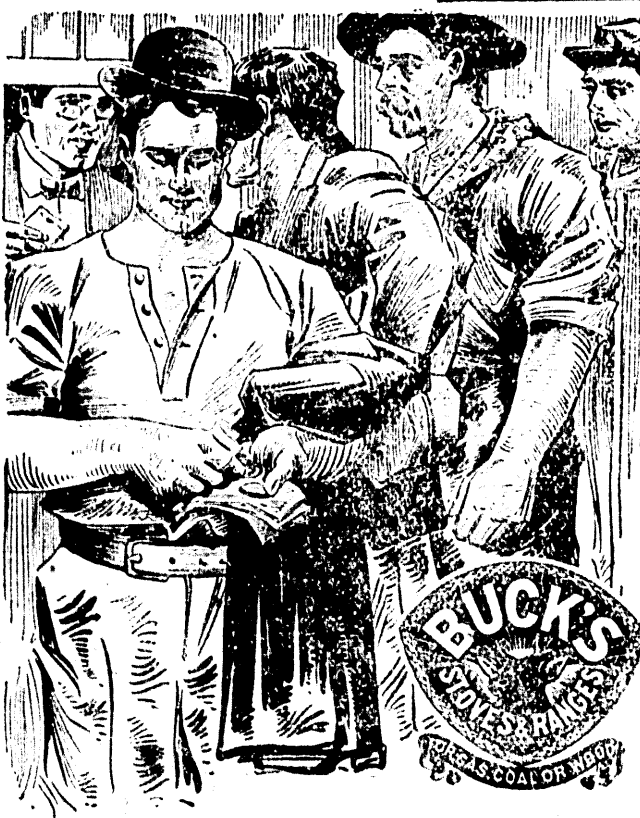

This address was preliminary to an address to be given April 9, by Dr. Clara H. Towne, who will discuss educational psychology, with a treatise on Binet's Methods of the study of the under average child. Dr. Towne is a graduate of Applied Psychology of the University of Pennsylvania and is now residing psychologist in the Illinois Training school at Lincoln.

The two lectures are designed to cover the modern conception of applied knowledge of heredity and psychology along educational lines.

Women's Secrets

There is one man in the United States who has perhaps heard more women's secrets than any other man or woman in the country. These secrets are not secrets of guilt or shame, but the secrets of suffering, and they have been confided to Dr. R. V. Pierce in the hope and expectation of advice and help. That few of these women have been disappointed in their expectations is proved by the fact that ninety-eight per cent. of all women treated by Dr. Pierce have been absolutely and altogether cured. Such a record would be remarkable if the cases treated were numbered by hundreds only. But when that record applies to the treatment of more than half a million women, in a practice of over 40 years, it is phenomenal, and entitles Dr. Pierce to the gratitude accorded him by women, as the first of specialists in the treatment of women's diseases.

Every sick woman may consult Dr. Pierce by letter, absolutely without charge. All replies are mailed, sealed in perfectly plain envelopes, without any printing or advertising, whatever, upon them. ## FAIL TO SETTLE COAL STRIKE

MINE OWNERS AND WORKERS STILL AT ODDS.

Government Gives Up After Three Days' Joint Conference—Legislative Action Sought to Secure Minimum Wage for Workers.

London, March 15.—The government's efforts to settle the coal strike by effecting an agreement between mine owners and their employees have failed. After three days of joint conference, the negotiations were broken off this afternoon and legislative action will be sought to obtain a minimum wage for all underground coal workers.

The official account of today's conference, issued to night, says Premier Asquith pointed out that the stoppage of work had now lasted more than a fortnight, and was producing a calamitous inconvenience and loss, and in some parts actual suffering. Though happily it had not been attended by disorder, the premier added, considering the number of persons directly or indirectly affected, the situation was growing every day more serious and would continue to be a menace as long as it lasted.

After reviewing the alternative attempts to obtain an agreement between the interested parties, the official report continues:

"The prime minister stated that the government would ask from parliament a legislative declaration that a reasonable minimum wage, accompanied by adequate safeguards for the protection of the employer, should be made a statutory term of the contract of employment of people engaged in coal mines. As regards the important question, how such minimum wage might be ascertained for any particular area, the prime minister, without pledging the government to any precise form of machinery, indicated that district minimums should be locally fixed by a joint board of each district, consisting of representatives of employers and employees with a neutral independent chairman who might be selected by the parties themselves, or if necessary by the government.

Such a body would, in the opinion of the government, afford what they have always regarded as all-important—a means for securing an end to the controversy between the employers and employees.

"The proposals of the government will include provisions to secure promptitude in the presentation of cases of parties and adjudication of them."

After the conference adjourned, the Miners' Federation issued a statement that they had been empowered by the executive committee to consider the government's bill, but that the federation would not advise a resumption of work until a satisfactory bill is passed.

The miners' delegates express satisfaction at the turn affairs have taken.

TIME TO ACT.

Don't Wait for the Fatal Stages of Kidney Illness—Profit by Jacksonville People's Experiences.

Occasional attacks of backache, irregular urination, headaches and dizzy spells are common early symptoms of kidney disorders. It's an error to neglect these ills. The attacks may pass off for a time but return with greater intensity. If there are symptoms of dropsy, puffy swellings below the eyes, bloating of limbs and ankles, or any part of the body, don't delay a minute. Begin taking Doan's Kidney Pills, and keep up the treatment until the kidneys are well. When your old-time health and vigor will return. Cures in Jacksonville prove the effectiveness of this great kidney remedy.

Capt. H. W. Hitt, 329 Church street, Jacksonville, Ill., says: "I was annoyed for months by too frequent passage of the kidney secretions. As I had often heard Doan's Kidney Pills recommended, I decided to try them and procured a box at Armstrong's drug store. Since using this remedy I have felt much better. I have no objection to allowing this statement to be published."

THE LEWIS TRIAL

St. Louis, Mo., March 15.—With a 15 per cent dividend, amounting to $375,000 to be paid on the stock of the Lewis Publishing company, and with only $13,491 on the surplus account, E. G. Lewis added an entry of $600,000 to the surplus account as representing increased value on his publications, according to the testimony of A. E. Radert. Radert, who is an expert accountant for the United States department of justice, was a witness this afternoon in the Lewis trial on a charge of using the mails to defraud. The $600,000 entry, Radert said, did not represent anything received by the company. Only a 20 per cent dividend was actually paid.

BOWLING CONTEST

Heine and Beilfuss Took High Honors in Doubles at Tournament Yesterday.

Chicago, March 15.—With a score of 1,207 Herman Heine and Emil Beilfuss of Chicago, took high honors of the doubles at the American Bowling Congress tournament today. This puts them in fourth place. Beilfuss' work in the last game was largely responsible for the team's showing. He swept the alleys eight times. He then made two spares and finished with a strike, giving him a mark of 263.

While no exceptionally high scores were recorded to day the fact that 14 teams bowled over the eleven hundred mark made the sport interesting.

Henry Lange of Watertown captured first place in to day's singles by dropping 649 pins. Spares and bunched strikes helped Lange to pile up his score.

Macomb papers complain of a great influx of tramps within the past few weeks.

There is an epidemic of smallpox at Dewar with sixty cases reported and 25 houses quarantined. Many foreigners who do not know how to care for themselves, it is said, will make the conditions all the more dangerous. The schools have been closed.

C. W. Sherman, a Peoria man, is said to have struck it rich in inventing a hog separator. It is a tube filled with medicated grease which is death to hog lice. It is fitted with wheels inviting the hog to rub himself against them, which he does and thereby causes the grease to be applied to his body. It is said Mr. Sherman is unable to fill all the orders he has for his invention.

Mrs. Fannie C. Lanham has recovered a judgment by agreement for $1,700 against the Reisch Brewing Co. of Springfield. Her husband fell from a buggy and was killed while intoxicated on whisky bought in a saloon conducted by W. W. Mudd of Athens, but owned by the brewing company.

A school teacher in Christian county undertook to make a thirteen year old boy stop whistling when the lad slashed at the teacher, making an ugly gash in the abdomen and cheek of the instructor who lies in a critical condition in a hospital at Taylorville. Fears are entertained for the gentleman's recovery.

A sad ending of a romance comes from Quincy and again emphasizes the danger of hasty marrying. Feb. 17 Clifford L. Hunn, a traveling salesman, visited Quincy and put up at a hotel in which Miss Vera Stephens conducted a manure business. They were thrown together much and Feb. 24 discovered they thought a great deal of each other; March 2 they were married. March 12 they separated. March 13 Mrs. Hunn applied for a divorce on the grounds of great cruelty and non-support. The husband vigorously denies the allegations.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY.

Sunday, March 17, will be Saint Patrick's birthday, one of the high days of the year with every true son of the Emerald Isle. While every body is acquainted with the use of the bit of green ribbon or the shamrock on this day, comparatively few people know how really great a man he was and how much Ireland owes to him. He really had more to do with making Ireland what she is to day than any one other man. The Scotch, English and French nations have each claimed him as a native son. The Roman Catholic, Baptist, Methodist, and goodness knows how many more churches have claimed him as belonging to them. He is one of the most sought after characters in all history. Without claiming him as a member of the religious movement with which he stands identified other than as a member of the church universal, Mr. Darsie will discuss the life and work of Saint Patrick at the Central Christian church next Sunday night. And he extends an invitation to every true Irishman to be present and help in celebrating the birthday of Ireland's patron saint.

Anna Held's Opinion of An Automobile

Arthur Bunker Motor Car Co. Seattle, Washington.
Gentlemen:
I cannot help but say that the big, luxurious Oakland car that took me so easily and comfortably across the beautiful landscape is the easiest riding American built car I have seen. Of course, my foreign machines cost me thousands of dollars, but this is the first American built car that I ever thought of as being so comfortable.

Respectfully yours,
Anna Held.
You will note by Miss Held's letter that she has had experience with foreign built cars which cost her thousands of dollars. You will also note carefully that the Oakland is the first American built car that she ever thought of as being so comfortable. This is one of the best tributes that has ever been paid the Oakland, and, coming as it does from a woman who is in a position to judge of the comparative merits of high priced cars and medium cars, it should carry great weight.

TRADE REVIEW

Activity is Widening While Business Sentiment is Becoming More Optimistic.

New York, March 15.—(R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade to-morrow will say:

Business activity is undoubtedly widening, while business sentiment, alike in industrial, mercantile and financial circles, is becoming distinctly more optimistic. This betterment is voiced in the reports from all leading cities. The best exhibit is made by the drygoods and iron and steel trades, and these trades are so fundamental to general business prosperity that their marked improvement is especially significant. Large purchases of pig-iron, stimulating to all branches of the industry, and causing a strengthening of prices, is the chief development in that trade. In drygoods there is an active demand by retailers. Notable sales of print cloths have been made and all cotton goods are active with advances in certain lines. The trade generally is beginning to exhibit a striking contrast to the depression that existed last year. Leather is advancing and hides are strong. The shoe trade is experiencing fairly normal conditions. The anthracite coal trade is unsettled by the continued negotiations over the labor question, but this has stimulated considerable current buying.

The absence of speculation is a characteristic feature of business in all its branches and this is coupled with such economies and efficiencies in administration as will enable business to be conducted profitably on narrower margins than formerly.

Bradstreet's Report.
New York, March 15.—Bradstreet's to-morrow will say:

Trade reports reflect dual characteristics: limited retail trade and slow sales because of bad weather over wide area, but liberal wholesale and jobbing business has been taken in the leading centers. Stocks are light hence constant purchasing is necessary. Gradual, steady improvement, rather than any heavy rush, is expected until after the presidential conventions in June.

Demand for drygoods has been more active, prices are firmer, deliveries of staple goods are slow, fall orders are coming in more freely, and buyers who remained out of the market or bought sparingly now find that supplies are not forthcoming so readily as anticipated. Other lines display renewed activity, and drygoods, coal, coke, pig-iron, farm implements, seeds, staple groceries, paints, hardware, builders' material in general, and lumber, demand for which has hitherto been backward, while there is more done in machinery and business with manufacturers of automobiles and accessories therefore is good.

Business failures in the United States for the week ending March 14 were 241 against 287 last week, 251 in the like week of 1911, 298 in 1910, 221 in 1909 and 293 in 1908.

Cooking at the Top of a Chimney.
To cook a potato pie at the top of a chimney 200 feet high by means of the heat generated in the fires below would seem an impossible task, yet such a feat was on one occasion accomplished by John Faulkner, a famous Lancashire steeplejack. The incident was the outcome of a wager between Faulkner and the manager of a Manchester gas works, who doubted John's statement regarding the excessive heat. A large iron kettle was procured, and this, being filled with the necessary ingredients—sixty-six pounds in weight—was hoisted to the summit of the huge chimney stack. Faulkner placed the receptacle on the outer and coolest side of the brickwork, but despite this the contents were found to be thoroughly cooked in one hour and twenty minutes, or ten minutes less than the stipulated time. Faulkner won his wager, and the pie, which, it was said, was slightly burned at the bottom, was afterward distributed among the poor of the district.—London Answers.

Our Denatured Food.
Were we a gastronomic nation we should insist on having French or German bread, with crisp, tasty crust, refusing the soggy loaves made of bleached, bolted flour robbed of nutritious phosphates and sources of flavor, refusing also the machine polished rice deprived of its nutritious outer parts, in which lies the delicate flavor of this cereal, leaving it pretty to look at, but, as one of the government agricultural experts, David Fairchild, has forcibly expressed it, "as tasteless as the paste that a paper hanger brushes on his rolls of wall paper." We should exclude the chemically greened teas dumped into our groceries because not wanted in any other country. We should protest against the peaches and other fruits, formerly brought into our markets, soft, sun ripened, luscious, but now offered to us hard, unripe, flavorless. Century.

Tea Drinking in Siam.
Tea is to be found in every tent and dwelling in Siam. There is always a kettle on the fire filled with tea and prepared for drinking, which is done by adding milk, butter and salt. This is their way of fixing this beverage and is said to be pleasant after one becomes accustomed to it. A peculiar mode of hospitality is shown by these people in reference to their tea. It is always at the disposal of every stranger and traveler. He need not ask for it. Neither is it expected that he should, but he must have his own cup. This is imperative, and accordingly every one carries a cup with him at all times. Some of these utensils are marvels of workmanship and are highly valued. They are generally made of some the grained wood and oftentimes are lined with silver and gold.

Damages Asked For Injuries Received Before Birth of Child.

A car in which her mother was riding struck a wagon, and the driver held up a hand from the fingers were missing. The sight of the deformed hand came into the mother's vision at the same time she experienced the fright of the shock. The child was born without fingers on its right hand.

The Ladies' Missionary circle of Union Baptist church met on Thursday, March 7, with Mrs. A. A. Curry with good attendance. The treasurer reported the appropriation of $50 raised and a balance of $17.50. Amount received by dues, $17.50. Refreshments, $1.19. Lunch at sale, $26.31. The subject for the afternoon study was Porto Rico. Leader, Mrs. George Beckman. The subject was ably presented and with the round table talks many points of interest were given us of Porto Rico. Many of us felt that we would like to visit this beautiful little island, with its green mountains pointing to the sky, surrounded by the bluest of waters, an island inhabited by a people who had been under the Spanish rule for 400 years and in ignorance when taken by United States in 1898. At that time there was but one school house. Since then 101 have been built with appropriations for 174 more. The protestant work has had a marvelous growth. Today there are about 8300 members in Protestant churches on this little island. Reports of their trips to California and Mexico were given by Mrs. Wm. Wood and Mrs. A. A. Curry. Response to roll call was given by name of a foreign missionary. Adjourned to meet April 1 with Mrs. Mary Hussey.

Program for meeting:

Grain Lett.

Chicago, March 15.—Wheat—Broke sharply under heavy scattered liquidation. Houses usually identified with the Lichstein interests, came to the support of the May wheat after a full two-cent decline. Several important commission houses were heavy buyers. Minneapolis reports an improvement in demand for July and September. The opinion is prevalent among local traders that the big bulk will endeavor to rally May wheat from around the present level. A fair short interest has been created during the recent decline. The open interest in May wheat has been greatly decreased and the bulk of the new business is now going into July.

Corn—In spite of unsatisfactory weather conditions, the market opened heavy and broke under liquidation pressure. Argentine shipped 9000 bushels compared with none last year. This is an unusually early shipment. The large crop and the high price will stimulate Argentine shipments and in all probability export business from the United States for this year is finished. Buenos Ayers reports stocks increasing rapidly. Local liquidation has been pretty thorough, but there are numerous outside holdings which have been seriously damaged by the decline. The position of the outside element has been greatly weakened and further decline will start heavy liquidation. Unless some bullish conditions induce local traders to re-instate recent sales, prices will probably work lower.

Oats—Oats suffered in sympathy with other grains. Scattered liquidation in May and July weakened these deliveries. Commission buying of July and September was good on the decline. Weather conditions are such as to put farther off farm work and seeding. The high price of corn and the scarcity of hay is leading to heavy consumption of oats. Pastures will be late and the farm horse with scarce hay will take a heavy ration of oats. In view of small farm stocks, this will be an important factor. We are firm believers in the value of July oats and look for higher prices. September on this decline is a very attractive investment.

Provisions—Opened higher on light hog receipts as the result of the storm. Packers were moderate sellers on the advance, the chief demand coming from shorts. With a strong hog market, which in view of high price offered, is not likely to decline, we consider products a good investment on the sideways.
